ASPEN RE AMERICA APPOINTS JIM BROWN AS HEAD OF CASUALTY

HAMILTON, Bermuda – October 12, 2020 – Aspen Re, the reinsurance segment of Aspen Insurance Holdings Limited (“Aspen”), announced today that Jim Brown has been appointed Head of Casualty, Aspen Re America, effective October 12, 2020.

Jim assumes responsibility to lead Aspen Re’s strategic efforts to further grow and develop U.S. casualty business by providing clients with relevant and impactful casualty reinsurance solutions.

Jim will be based in Aspen’s New York and Rocky Hill, CT, offices.

Jim has extensive experience in casualty reinsurance and has spent the majority of his 30-year career in casualty underwriting and leadership positions in New York and London, most recently as Head of General Liability at AXIS Re. He was also Senior Vice President, General Casualty Business Unit Manager of AXIS Re from 2009 to 2018. Prior to this, he also held senior positions at Partner Re and CNA Re.

Scott Kreuzer, Senior Managing Director, Aspen Re America, commented: “Aspen has a strong track record in U.S. casualty business and we are fully focused on maximizing the opportunities we see in this area.

“We are excited to have an individual of Jim’s caliber join our team at this time to help us to deliver growth in this important sector of our business.

“I’m excited to attract people of his considerable experience and expertise to Aspen. His appointment further underlines our commitment to offering best-in-class underwriting to our clients and brokers.”
